Hi there! I'm Sarah. I'm from London in England.

I know that in Argentina you are in summer during the months of December, January and February. But in the north hemisphere we are in winter!

The weather here, in London, changes a lot. In winter, there is snow and you can go skiing. Sometimes the sky is blue and it's beautiful to go for a walk in the park but sometimes it's cloudy and cold so you need warm clothes. Also, it usually rains a lot, so you need an umbrella, too. In summer, it is a good time to visit the place and take pictures or ride your bike, especially in my neighborhood Camden. In Camden town there are music festivals, street markets and you can try delicious food from street vendors, too.

When is it a good time to visit your place?

1. The weather is always the same in London. []

2. Sarah carries an umbrella in summer and in winter. []

3. Camden town is an interesting place to visit. []

4. Cold and cloudy days are a good opportunity to explore Sarah's neighborhood.
